ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIPS

Academic scholarships cover the cost of living and education in one of the US educational institutions. In most cases, these scholarships don't cover all the expenses, but some part of it (so-called partial scholarships).

The cost of education includes the tuition, accommodation, food, books, taxes and health insurance. Depending on your academic qualities, the institutions offer different amounts of scholarships.

One of the services C2C provides is to help students find proper educational institutions in order to continue their education in the United States and get a high-school, junior college or university scholarship, both for bachelor's and master's degree.

These scholarships are available to all interested students, regardless of their age or the sport they are involved in.
